10 Therefore, good cause appearing,

11 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

12 1. Parties to This Action. “Plaintiffs” are the United States of America and the 13 Walker River Paiute Tribe as this action relates to water rights claims asserted on behalf of the 15 collectively referred to herein as “Plaintiffs.” For purposes of this Order, “Defendants” are those

14 and will do their best to file joint motions and joint briefs. Plaintiffs and Principal Defendants
15 potentially have common issues to brief. No page limit should be imposed on a brief to the extent
16 that multiple common issues are incorporated into a single brief. To the extent possible, the Party
17 groups (i.e. Plaintiffs and Principal Defendants) shall separately work as a group to file joint 18 motions and joint briefs. When briefs are filed by individual parties rather than as a group, the 21 Rules of Civil Procedure, applicable local rules of this Court, and this Order.

1 due before the close of discovery. Objections to any discovery request will be served with 2 responses to written discovery. Written responses and responsive documents will only be withheld
3 based on a claim of privilege or on a motion to the Court for protective order made after compliance
4 with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

5           a.     Interrogatories. Plaintiffs (as a group) and Principal Defendants (as a 6 group) will coordinate interrogatories to avoid repetition and undue burden on a party in 7 responding to interrogatories. Each group is entitled to 25 coordinated Interrogatories. To the 8 extent that individual Defendants have interrogatories unique to their interests that cannot be 9 coordinated with the Defendant group, they are entitled to serve them after service of the initial 10 coordinated interrogatories.

11           b.     Request for Production of Documents and Things (“RFPs”). Plaintiffs

16 and control. For the United States, it will be responsible for producing documents in custody and 17 control of the Department of the Interior/United States Bureau of Indian Affairs as well as those 18 agencies that have asserted water right claims in the Walker River Basin of Nevada and California.
19 To the extent that individual Defendants have RFPs unique to their interests that cannot be

5 entitled to serve them after service of the initial coordinated RFAs.

6       7.       Responses to Written Discovery Requests. In response to written discovery, a 7 responding Party may respond to a request for documents by (i) providing a paper copy of the 8 document, (ii) providing a searchable .pdf file through Adobe Acrobat software, or/and (iii)
9 establishing a record repository for inspection and copying. Documents requiring specialized 10 software other than Adobe Acrobat, such as spreadsheet files, may be produced in native format.
11 Although documents might be electronically stored (such as email correspondence, reports, etc.), 12 there is no need to otherwise pursue or produce information referred to as “electronically stored 13 information” that generally refers to backups, duplicates, and underlying signature information
14 (sometimes known as metadata) associated with an electronically stored document. However, a 15 party may request native files for documents that are difficult to understand after they have been 16 produced in the format specified herein or that contain potentially relevant embedded information, 17 and such requests will not be unreasonably denied. Such a request shall be made according to the 18 following protocol:

19               a.       The requesting party shall make any such request as soon as reasonably 20 practical after receiving a document production.

21               b.       The requesting party shall provide a list of bates numbers of the documents 22 that it is requesting to be produced in native file format.

1           c.       Within fourteen (14) days of receiving this request, the producing party will 2 either (a) produce the requested native files to the extent reasonably practicable, or (b) respond in 3 writing, setting forth its position on the production of the requested documents.

4           d.       If the parties are unable to agree as to the production of the requested
5 documents in native format, the parties may submit the matter to the Court.

6           The Parties do not need to produce copies of documents that were previously produced or 7 copies of documents that are publicly available (such as published materials one might find on the 8 Internet, news publications, a public repository, or a library). If a Party wishes to rely on the public 9 availability of a document, the responding Party will identify the specific location where the 10 document is available to the public (e.g., specific Internet location, specific library, etc.). If a 11 document has been previously produced, the response will identify the document previously 12 produced, and when, and also refer to the location of it by bates number or otherwise.

13           8.       Expert Discovery. Discovery from experts will be in accordance with the Federal 14 Rules of Civil Procedure. Provided, however, that all expert witnesses shall be required to submit 15 a report consistent with the requirements of Rule 26(a)(2)(B), even if the witness would not 16 otherwise be required to provide such a report and would only be subject to the requirements of 17 Rule 26(a)(2)(C). The parties do not need to produce copies of documents that were previously 18 produced or copies of documents that are publicly available (such as published materials one might 19 find on the Internet, news publications, a public repository, a library - so long as the documents 20 are identified and their specific location is provided).

22 Plaintiffs' opening expert reports will be due on August 14, 2020. Defendants' responsive expert

However, if reasonably necessary for purposes of preparing responsive expert reports, with the consent of relevant parties, deposition of such expert witness may commence immediately after the expert witness's opening expert report has been disclosed. If the relevant parties do not consent, the party seeking to take a deposition prior to responsive or rebuttal expert reports may seek leave of Court to conduct such a deposition.

9. Privileged Materials Located in the Offices of Counsel. If a party is claiming privilege as to a requested document, it should be placed on a privilege log, regardless of where it is located.

10. Privileged Communications (Attorney-Client Communications and Attorney Work Product) and Privilege Log. Unless expressly stated otherwise, no discovery request should be construed to request communications exclusively between a party (including representatives, employees and agents) and its counsel, and work product created by counsel. Unless such communications are expressly requested or otherwise contain discoverable

1 information (e.g., Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(4)(C)), such materials will not be produced or placed on a
2 privilege log. The parties will follow Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(A), to provide a log of privileged 3 or work product materials subject to any exception which might be applicable.

4 11. Depositions. Depositions will be taken in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 30 and 5 31. The parties will have the right to depose any identified expert or lay witness. Expert depositions 6 will be taken in accordance with the schedule set forth in paragraph 8 above.

7 All lay witnesses, must be identified no later than April 30, 2021. For any lay witnesses on 8 which Plaintiffs will rely, for any lay witnesses (if any) on which Principal Defendants will rely, 9 and for any remaining non-expert persons as contemplated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(a), such 10 depositions may be taken before the close of discovery.

11 Expert depositions will be taken in accordance with the schedule set forth in paragraph 8
12 above. Subject to specific agreement(s) otherwise, depositions will occur in the Reno/Sparks, 13 Nevada, metropolitan area, be taken in a single day, and last for a maximum of 7 hours of 14 testimony. Notices of deposition and subpoenas duces tecum directed to a deponent may be served
15 on coordinating counsel by email 30 days before a scheduled deposition. Costs of lay/expert 16 witness deponents (which include but are not limited to witness travel, expense, and time spent 17 preparing for and attending the deposition) will be borne by the Party on whose behalf the 18 lay/expert witness will be called. All other costs associated with depositions (such as rented office 19 space, court reporter costs, etc.) shall be borne by the Party taking such deposition. For all oral 20 depositions, the Parties request the right of review pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(e).

21 12. Fed. R. Evid. 502(b). The parties invoke Rule 502(b) of the Federal Rules of 22 Evidence and agree that in the event of an inadvertent disclosure of privileged/protected material,
23 such privilege or protection is not waived or forfeit by inadvertent disclosure. If a party determines that it has produced a document upon which it wishes to make a claim of privilege, the producing party shall, within 14 days of making such determination, give all counsel of record notice of the claim of privilege. Any party that complies with this paragraph will be deemed to have taken reasonable steps to rectify disclosures of privileged or protected information or materials. If a party identifies a document that appears on its face or in light of facts known to the party to be subject to another party's claim of privilege, the party identifying the potential claim of privilege is under a good-faith obligation to notify the party holding the potential claim of privilege. Recovery, management, and disputed associated with disclosed privileged material will be governed by FRCP 26(b)(5)(B).

13. Documents Located at American Indian Records Repository. When the special procedures to access records at the American Indian Records Repository are known, any party may seek an amendment to this Order, if necessary.

14. Extensions of Modifications of Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. LR26-4 governs modifications, extensions of discovery plan and scheduling order. Any stipulation or motion to extend a deadline set forth in this Order must be filed with the Court no later than 3 days prior to the deadline sought to be extended.

17. Mineral County and Walker Lake Working Group. Defendants Mineral County and the Walker Lake Working Group do not anticipate actively engaging in the discovery process

1 described in the paragraphs above, and coordinating counsel for the Principal Defendants does not
2 have to coordinate with them in the discovery process. With respect to motions, including
3 dispositive motions, Defendants Mineral County and Walker Lake Working Group will comply 4 with the schedule detailed above, but they and the Principal Defendants are not required to 5 coordinate with respect to motions. Plaintiffs and Principal Defendants agree that with respect to 6 any written discovery served, Defendants Mineral County and the Walker Lake Working Group 7 are entitled to copies of responses to such discovery, and that they are entitled to participate in any 8 scheduled depositions. To the extent that Defendants Mineral County and the Walker Lake
9 Working Group later determine that they in fact need to more fully participate in the discovery
10 process, upon motion and good cause shown, the Court will consider any such request and grant 11 any appropriate relief.
